Southern Portion of the Pacific Coast Region

Islands and rock outcroppings are land that must be considered when selecting ballast water exchange locations.

Effective January 1, 2020