EXECUTIVE OFFICER'S REPORT:

Executive Officer Jennifer Lucchesi updated the Commission on the following items:

- Rincon Well Abandonment and Decommissioning Project

Phase 1 work, plugging and abandoning the wells and oil facilities at the former state oil and gas leases at Rincon Point in Ventura, is complete. Rincon Island and the onshore site were placed into caretaker status officially in July. The facilities will remain in caretaker status while the Phase 2 feasibility study and CEQA analysis are completed, and until the Phase 3 work, the final Island and onshore decommissioning, commences.

Padre Associates, who is our environmental consultant, is currently conducting surveys and assessments to inform the feasibility study and subsequent CEQA document, which will evaluate decommissioning alternatives for the final disposition of the Island and onshore facilities. A bathymetric study of the Island and surrounding area and a coastal engineering study have been completed. Ongoing work includes site assessments for hydrocarbon contamination, site characterization, a marine biological study, an engineering assessment, and an environmental baseline assessment.

Staff is continuing robust public outreach to the community and stakeholders. Staff hosted a community townhall in April and a feasibility study workshop in June. This was followed by a questionnaire staff sent to Mussel Shoals residents requesting their input on Phase 2. Staff will convene another townhall after we release the Draft Feasibility Study, which is expected to occur in late September or early October.

Staff has also begun informal consultation with the California Coastal Commission, the State Coastal Conservancy, the California Fish and Wildlife Service, the National Marine Fisheries Service, and Ventura County. Commission staff anticipates presenting the Final Feasibility Study to the Commission in December.

- Platform Holly/Piers 421 Decommissioning Project

Staff continues to maintain and monitor the platform and onshore facilities to ensure public health and safety. Staff and ExxonMobil are planning to reactivate the mothballed Platform Holly rig in preparation for resuming well plug and abandonment work. Subcontractor maintenance personnel returned to the platform on August 16 to begin a five-week reactivation program. The full complement of personnel are expected to return mid-September to begin the well plug and abandonment work. Personnel transport and cargo operations to and from Platform Holly will continue from alternate piers in the area for the foreseeable future, while negotiations to regain access to the Ellwood Pier continue.

Last month, staff issued a Notice of Preparation for the Haskell 's Beach oil piers. These are the Piers 421 Removal Project. Staff held two virtual public scoping meetings earlier this month. Staff anticipates releasing the Draft Environmental Impact Report later this year.

- SB 44 Legacy Well Remediation Program

The SB 44 Legacy Wells and Coastal Hazards program provides $2 million per year to address legacy wells and coastal hazards. In July, we successfully plugged and abandoned the Olsson #805 well at Summerland Beach. This is the third well we have re-abandoned in Santa Barbara County using the SB 44 funds. The abandonment was completed on time, within budget, and without incident. In April, staff authorized dive work to investigate seeps to determine if any of the leaks observed during previous drone surveys were associated with another legacy well. Throughout three days of diving, eight new well casings were discovered, two of which were leaking hydrocarbons into the ocean. During diving operations, old timber piles were also discovered and appear to be remnants of the Treadwell pier. Staff intends to address these wells and remnants in the future as part of the SB 44 program. Staff is developing a plan to prepare engineering programs, cost estimates, and establish priorities for additional well abandonments in fiscal year 2021-22. Staff is excited to continue its successful work and its continued collaboration with partner agencies and the community.

- Hollister Ranch Public Access Program

The Hollister Ranch state agency team and its consultants have been leading a robust public engagement process for more than a year and a half. The public engagement process began with interviews of 18 stakeholder groups, followed by three public surveys and other interactive platforms for public engagement, two public meetings, and six listening sessions with stakeholders, environmental justice communities and tribal representatives. Formal tribal consultations were initiated after the release of the conceptual public access plan draft in June and are currently in progress. The Coastal Commission expects to hold its first public hearing on the draft public access program in October of this year.
