Honorable George Deukmejian
Governor of California
Sacramento, California 95814

Dear Governor Deukmejian:

On September 2, 1981, concurrent criminal jurisdiction was ceded to the United States over a section of 14th Street located on and within the geographical boundaries of Oakland Army Base in accordance with Section 126 of the Government Code of the State of California. Said cession of jurisdiction will expire on September 1, 1986, under the provisions of Section 126; however, the United States desires to renew the current jurisdictional status of 14th Street in order to allow Federal authorities to continue to share responsibility with the State for traffic control and law enforcement.

Therefore, pursuant to the authority in Title 40, United States Code, Section 255, and in accordance with the California Government Code, Section 126, notice is hereby given that the United States accepts such jurisdiction as necessary for the State of California and the United States to share concurrent criminal jurisdiction over the section of 14th Street located within the boundaries of Oakland Army Base and depicted on the enclosed map.

I would appreciate your acknowledging receipt of this notice of acceptance of said concurrent criminal jurisdiction by signing the duplicate copy hereof and returning it to this office.

Sincerely,
