CHAPTER CCCCXLV.

An Act concerning submarine sites for lighthouses and other aids to navigation on the coast of this State.

[Approved March 26, 1874.]

The People of the State of California, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Whenever the United States desire to acquire title to land belonging to the State, and covered by the navigable waters of the United States, within the limits thereof, for the site of a lighthouse, beacon, or other aid to navigation, and application is made by a duly authorized agent of the United States, describing the site required for one of the purposes aforesaid, then the Governor of the State is authorized and empowered to convey the title to the United States, and to cede to the said United States jurisdiction over the same; provided, no single tract shall contain more than ten acres, and that the State shall retain concurrent jurisdiction so far that all process, civil or criminal, issuing under the authority of the State, may be executed by the proper officers thereof, upon any person or persons amenable to the same, within the limits of land so ceded, in like manner and to like effect as if this Act had never been passed.
