tional fee of two dollars shall be paid, and a personal license issued to each such person. When the license is issued to a partnership a display license shall be issued to the partnership and a personal license issued to one member of the partnership whose name is designated in the application. For each additional member or employee engaged in selling, an additional fee of two dollars is required and a personal license shall be issued to each such person. If a new license is not obtained <sup>Penalty</sup> within one calendar month after the expiration of a license there shall be added to the fee a penalty of two dollars for each license. No penalty shall be collected if the licensee makes an affidavit that no business was done during the period he was not licensed. The payment of such fee or penalty is not a bar to prosecution for doing business without a license. When a license is issued to an individual engaged in such business both a display license and a personal license shall be issued to him. All display licenses shall be posted conspicuously in the place of business of the licensee. Where a licensee maintains more than one place of business duplicate display licenses shall be applied for and issued upon the payment of a fee of one dollar each. The director may investigate the actions of any licensee and may, after notice and hearing, suspend or revoke the license.

CHAPTER 340.

An act ceding to the United States of America certain tide and submerged lands of the State of California upon certain trusts and conditions.

[Approved by the Governor June 14, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The State of California hereby cedes to the United States of America exclusive jurisdiction in and to those certain lands situate in the county of Solano, State of California, and more particularly described as follows, to wit:

Certain State
lands ceded to United States.

Those filled tide and submerged lands in section 6, T. 2 N., R. 2 W., M. D. M., lying between Lot 1 of said section and the present ordinary high water mark and the U. S. Military Reservation (the Benicia Arsenal) and the north line of said section; and Those tide and submerged land contained within a strip 300 feet in width measured perpendicularly from the ordinary high water mark and abutting the lands of the U. S. Military Reservation at Benicia.

SEC. 2. The hereinbefore described lands are ceded to the United States of America, upon the following conditions, <sup>Conditions and reservations.</sup> to wit:

(a) That there is hereby reserved in the State of California the right and power to serve and execute upon the hereinbefore described lands, or any portion thereof, civil process not incompatible with this cession, and such criminal process as may lawfully issue under authority of the State of California against any person or persons charged with crimes or offenses committed without the exterior boundaries of the hereinbefore described lands; there is hereby further reserved in the State of California the right to tax and license persons and corporations, their franchises and property upon the hereinbefore described lands.

Reversion of lands

(b) That should the United States of America abandon Benicia Arsenal Reservation to which the hereinbefore described lands are adjacent, all of the right, title and interest of the United States of America in and to the lands hereby ceded shall ipso facto terminate, and any and all interest hereby ceded shall immediately revert in State of California.

Reservations

(c) That the cession of the hereinbefore described lands is made subject to the reservations to the people contained in the Constitution of California.

CHAPTER 341.

An act making appropriations for the support of the Government of the State of California and for several public purposes in accordance with the provisions of section 34 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, approved and adopted by the people at the general election held November 7, 1922, declaring the urgency thereof, and providing that this act shall take effect immediately.

[Approved by the Governor June 14, 1935. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Budget
appropriations

SECTION 1. The following sums of money, or so much thereof as may be necessary are hereby appropriated for the use and support of the State of California for the eighty-seventh and eighty-eighth fiscal years and, unless otherwise herein provided, shall be paid out of the general fund in the State treasury.

Special funds

Whenever by constitutional or statutory provision the revenues or receipts of any institution, department, board, bureau, commission, officer, employee, or other agency, or any moneys in any special fund created by law therefor, are to be used for salaries, support or any proper purpose, expenditures shall be made therefrom for all such purposes, and not from the general fund, to the extent only of the amount herein appropriated unless otherwise stated herein.

Recurrent
appropriations.

Appropriations for purposes not otherwise provided for herein which have been heretofore made by any existing con-
