CHAPTER 310.

An act to add a new section to the Political Code, to be known as section thirty-five thereof, relating to the conveying to the United States of state lands covered by navigable waters.

[Approved March 18, 1907.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is hereby added to the Political Code, to be known as section thirty-five thereof, and to read as follows:

35. The governor, on application therefor by a duly authorized agent, may convey to the United States any tract of land not exceeding ten acres, belonging to the state and covered by navigable waters, for the site of a lighthouse, beacon, or other aid to navigation. After such conveyance the United States shall have jurisdiction over such tract, subject to the right of the state to have concurrent jurisdiction so far that all process, civil or criminal, issued under authority of the state may be executed by the proper officers thereof within such tract, upon any person or persons amenable to the same, in like manner and with like effect as if such conveyance had not been made. Conveyance of state lands for lighthouse sites.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
