insane or feeble-minded person as herein provided do not exceed the sum of two hundred dollars. Upon the filing of such affidavit, such sum or sums shall be delivered to the medical superintendent of the State hospital or home for feeble-minded to which the insane or feeble-minded person is committed, and shall be deposited by him in the patient's personal deposit fund as provided in section 2172 of this code.

Annual accounts

The medical superintendent of each State hospital or home for feeble-minded shall annually on the thirtieth day of June of each year render an account to the secretary of the State Department of Institutions, which account shall, in addition to such other matters as may be required by the secretary of the State Department of Institutions, contain a full, true and accurate account, under oath of all moneys received by him in accordance with the provisions of this section, of all disbursements thereof, and showing the balance at the date of the rendering thereof.

CHAPTER 827.

An act to provide for reduction of salaries of officers and employees of the State in the State civil service which are in excess of the maximum salary limits of the respective positions.

[Approved by the Governor July 20, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Salaries reduced to maximum limit

SECTION 1. Upon the effective date of this act the salary of every officer and employee of the State in the State civil service, is hereby reduced to the maximum salary limit for the position held by such officer, agent or employee, as established and in effect upon April 1, 1935. This act shall not affect the power of the State Personnel Board to classify positions and to establish minimum and maximum salary limits, or the authority of the Director of Finance to approve salaries.

CHAPTER 828.

An act accepting a retrocession of jurisdiction over the rights of way of the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District through the Presidio of San Francisco military reservation and Fort Baker military reservation in Marin County.

[Approved by the Governor July 20, 1935. In effect September 15, 1935.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Retrocession of jurisdiction accepted

SECTION 1. There is hereby accepted on behalf of the State of California a retrocession of jurisdiction over the rights of way covered by a certain grant from the Secretary of War to the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District of California dated February 13, 1931, to extend, maintain and operate State roads across the Presidio of San Francisco military reservation and the Fort Baker military reservation in the county of Marin, as heretofore or hereafter amended by the Secretary of War, subject to all of the terms and conditions contained in said permit as so granted and any amendments thereof as aforesaid. The land and premises over which said retrocession of jurisdiction is hereby granted shall be the whole of the rights of way so granted by said permit and any amendments thereof through their entire length and width and for the entire distance granted therein, together with the land crossed by any toll bridge that may be erected by such Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District to connect the Presidio of San Francisco military reservation with the Fort Baker military reservation, and embracing the said toll bridge with its approach roads over the rights of way so granted by said permit and any amendments thereof.

Lands affected

SEC. 2. Should the United States assume exclusive control and management of said bridge and roads as provided in said permit, and any amendments thereof, the retrocession of jurisdiction herein accepted shall be suspended and revert in the United States for the duration of such control and management. Whenever the State of California shall cease to occupy said rights of way and land for the purposes authorized in said permit and any amendments thereof, then the same, including all jurisdiction thereover, shall revert to the United States.

Suspension.

SEC. 3. The acceptance of jurisdiction herein provided shall take effect upon the retrocession of such jurisdiction to the State of California by the United States.

Time of acceptance
