§ 113. Consent to retrocession of jurisdiction by United States; Conditions for recording order or resolution

The Legislature, acting through the State Lands Commission, hereby consents to the retrocession of jurisdiction by the United States over land within this state upon and subject to each and all of the following express conditions:

(a) The United States must in writing have requested state acceptance of the retrocession, and unless there is an officer of the United States empowered by a United States statute to retrocede jurisdiction, the request shall be by the act of Congress. The retrocession may return all jurisdiction to the state or may provide for concurrent jurisdiction.

(b) The proposed retrocession is in the best interest of the state.

(c) A notice of the proposed retrocession has been given to the clerk of the board of supervisors of each county in which the federal lands are located at least 15 days before the proposed retrocession is considered by the State Lands Commission.

(d) The United States has agreed to bear all costs and expenses incurred by the State Lands Commission in making the retrocession.

(e) The acceptance of the retrocession shall be made at a publicly noticed meeting of the State Lands Commission. The determination of the State Lands Commission shall be final and the retrocession of jurisdiction accepted shall become effective when certified copies of its orders or resolutions have been recorded in the office of the county recorder of each county in which any part of the land is situated. The State Lands Commission shall... keep copies of its orders or resolutions and make them available to the public upon request.

HISTORY:

Amendments:
2015 Amendment: (1) Amended the introductory clause by substituting (a) "acting through the State Lands Commission," for "of California"; and (b) "over land within" for "of land within"; (2) amended the first sentence of subd (a) by (a) adding "the" after "state acceptance of"; and (b) substituting "retrocede" for "cede"; (3) deleted former subd (b) which read: "(b) When the conditions of subdivision (a) have been found and declared to have occurred and to exist, by the State Lands Commission, the commission shall hold a hearing to determine whether acceptance of the retrocession is in the best interests of the state. Notice of the hearing shall be published pursuant to Section 6061 in each county in which the land or any part of the land is situated and a copy of the notice shall be personally served upon the clerk of the board of supervisors of each such county. The State Lands Commission shall make rules and regulations governing the conditions and procedure of the hearings."; (4) added subds (c) and (d); (5) redesignated former subd (c) to be subd (e); and (6) amended subd (e) by (a) adding the first sentence; and (b) adding "of the retrocession of" in the second sentence.

§ 126. Cession of concurrent criminal jurisdiction to United States

(a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, general or special, the Legislature of California, acting through the State Lands Commission, hereby cedes concurrent criminal jurisdiction to the United States within lands identified and held by the United States upon and subject to each and all of the following express limitations, conditions, and reservations, in addition to any other limitations, conditions, or reservations prescribed by law:

(1) Before making a cession, the State Lands Commission shall make the following findings:

(A) The United States has requested in writing the state to cede concurrent criminal jurisdiction within the identified lands.

(B) The lands are held by the United States for the erection of forts, magazines, arsenals, dockyards, and other needful buildings within the purview of clause 17 of Section 8 of Article I of the United States Constitution, or for any other federal purposes. For purposes of this section, lands held by the United States are defined as: (i) lands acquired in fee by purchase or condemnation, (ii) lands owned by the United States that are included in the military reservation by presidential proclamation or act of Congress, (iii) any other lands owned by the United States, including, but not limited to, public domain lands that are held for a public purpose, and (iv) leaseholds acquired by the United States over private lands or state-owned lands that are held for a public purpose.

(C) The cession is made pursuant to and in compliance with the laws of the United States.

(D) A notice of the proposed cession has been given to the clerk for the board of supervisors of the county in which the federal lands are located at least 15 days before the proposed cession.

(E) The proposed cession is in the best interests of the State of California.
§ 126   GOVERNMENT CODE § 126

(P) The United States has agreed to bear all costs and expenses incurred by the State Lands Commission in making the cession.

(2) The cession shall continue only so long as the lands are owned by the United States and used for the purposes for which jurisdiction is ceded or for 10 years, whichever period is less.

(3) The cession shall vest when the State Lands Commission has received notice of the United States' acceptance of the cession and certified copies of the State Lands Commission's orders or resolutions making the findings described in paragraphs (1) have been recorded in the office of the county recorder of each county in which any part of the land is situated. The State Lands Commission shall keep copies of its orders or resolutions in its records and make them available to the public upon request.

(b) In ceding concurrent criminal jurisdiction, the Legislature and the state reserve jurisdiction over the land, water, and use of water with full power to control and regulate the acquisition, use, control, and distribution of water with respect to the land affected by the cession.

Amendments: Added, State 1st Ex Sess. 1846 ch 154 § 1. Amended State 1847 ch 152 § 1; State 1953 ch 875 § 1; State 1954 ch 856 § 1; State 1961 ch 649 § 1; State 1957 ch 317 § 1; State 1959 ch 145 § 1, effective July 6, 1959; State 1961 ch 968 § 1, effective July 6, 1961; State 1976 ch 886 § 1, effective August 30, 1976; State 1969 ch 829 § 1; State 2014 ch 612 § 1 (AB 2764), effective January 1, 2016.

Amendments: 2014 Amendment: Substituted the section for the former section which read: "Notwithstanding any other provision of law, neither the State nor the United States shall cede concurrent criminal jurisdiction to the United States, within land held by the United States, upon and subject to each and all of the following express limitations, conditions, and reservations: in addition to any other limitations, conditions, or reservations prescribed by law; (a) The lands must be held by the United States for the purpose of long-term economic or public use, such as the construction of long-term, permanent, or other public buildings, or other public purpose within the purview of clause 17 of Section 6 of Article IV of the Constitution of the United States, or for the establishment, consolidation, and extension of national forests under the Act of Congress approved March 3, 1911; (b) State property held as the "Weeks Act," or for any other federal purposes. (b) The cession must be pursuant to and in compliance with the laws of the United States. (c) The United States must in writing have requested the state to cede concurrent criminal jurisdiction within each land and subject to each and all of the limitations, conditions, and reservations prescribed by law; (d) The United States must have been found eligible by the United States, upon having title, and declared that the conditions and reservations prescribed in subsections (a), (b), (c), and (d) have occurred and exist and that the cession is in the interest of the state. Certified copies of the orders or resolutions making these findings and declarations shall be recorded in the office of the county recorder of each county in which any part of the land is situated. The State Lands Commission shall keep copies of its orders or resolutions and make them available to the public upon request. The purposes for ceding criminal jurisdiction shall be specified in and made a part of the orders or resolutions. (e) The cession makes from the United States to the state the jurisdiction of the state over the land, water, and use of water with full power to control and regulate the acquisition, use, control, and distribution of water with respect to the land affected by the cession.
